Wonderful Progress.

In the days of Daniel Boone and Davy Crockett and Kit Carson travel to and through the South was either on foot or horseback and full of hardships. But today one may leave any Northern city, and in a day or two, traveling in perfect comfort under care sufficient for even the most delicate invalid, be set down in a part of the country which will make him rub his eyes and believe that winter never comes.

The Northern winter's heart is cold. The Southland's heart is warm. And in her fond and true embrace we find a host of joys untold. We find an ever present charm. Where winter has no place.

Winter means to the Northland, ice, snow, sleet and chill, cold and discomfort; to the Southland, blue and brilliant skies, genial airs and balmy sunshine, the unrestricted pleasures of outdoor life, scenery that never fails to enchant, foliage of perennial green, and flowers in perpetual bloom. The abundant and delightful outdoor life of the Southern winter is its chiefest charm, and no attractive feature has been overlooked or forgotten. Golf may be played on the finest links in the country; tennis on clay courts kept in the pink of perfection; surf bathing in water at a temperature of 70 degrees and above, riding, motoring over picturesque roads through tropical scenery and on the hard sand beach; yachting, rowing and fishing at sea and in land locked waters; chair wheeling and bicycling on palm lined promenades and through tropical jungles. The finest climate in the world—every day a June day, full of sunshine.

For the hunter, the South provides practically every feathered and furred creature from quail and squirrels to wild turkey and deer; and for the fisherman, a bewildering variety of game fish from the rainbow hued trout to the majestic tarpon. The Queen & Crescent route has made it possible for the winter traveler from the North to revel in luxurious "palaces on wheels," which speed like the wind through regions of beauty and bloom. The many thriving cities, attractive resorts and historic points along the route make it doubly interesting. With the superb express trains, electric lighted and equipped with the latest types of Pullman drawing room, state room, club, library and observation sleeping cars, it is little wonder that so many tourists in the Northern and middle States visit the South by this great railway system. This road operates the finest trains in the United States between Cincinnati, Ohio, and Jacksonville, Florida, and New Orleans, Louisiana, and low round trip winter tourist rates are being made from all points along the line.

Wants Lexington Postoffice.

A new Richmond will enter the field for the Lexington postoffice in the person of Captain John W. Throckmorton, who has decided to get in the race for this Federal plum, and announced that he would in a few days forward his application to Washington.

Secretary of State Ben L. Bruner is a staunch friend of Captain Throckmorton, who will endorse his application and work for his appointment. Captain Throckmorton has many friends in Paris who hope that he will land the job.

Make Them Work.

An exchange says: "Fiscal Courts now have an opportunity to make a class of citizens who have not borne their part of expense of government do so. The man who does not pay his poll tax can be put on the roads of the county and compelled to work them out at the rate of one dollar per day. This provision rigidly enforced means the saving of hundreds of dollars every year."

Winter Wheat Sown.

Kentucky has eight thousand fewer acres sown in winter wheat this fall than it had in the fall of 1909. Figures announced by the Department of Agriculture show 792,000 acres sown in Kentucky as against 800,000 acres in 1909. The indicated total winter wheat area of the United States is 34,485,000 acres.

Kentucky's Population Shows Small Gain.

The population of Kentucky as revealed by the recent census is between 2,280,000 and 2,290,000, a gain of about 6.6 per cent. Ten years ago the state's population was 2,194,174. Only four states have shown a smaller percentage of increase than Kentucky. They are Iowa, New Hampshire, Missouri and Vermont. It is believed that Kentucky will lose none of her eleven Congressmen unless Congress has decided upon an apportionment in excess of 218,001, as the number of inhabitants to be represented by each Representative in the Lower House. The present ratio is 194,182. The consensus of opinion is that the poor showing is due largely to the defective educational system and the emigration of Kentuckians to the new states of the Southwest and Northwest.

Paid More for Hali Than Crop Brought.

An instance of the misfortune shared by those who counted upon the "pool" holding this year is reported by the Lexington Herald in the experience of John Toohey of Fayette county, who recently sold his tobacco on the Lexington breaks.

On August 20, Mr. Toohey bought the half interest of his tenant, John McMullin, in a crop of 7,970 pounds. Believing that the effort to pool the 1910 crop would be successful, and that emergency prices would be paid for tobacco not in the pool, Toohey paid $13.50 per hundred for the cropper's half. December 8, he sold the crop, receiving $5.60 per hundred. The half bought cost about $538, and the whole crop brought only $438, so Toohey gave away his tobacco and lost about $100 besides.

The "Turkey Trot."

The "turkey trot" is the latest out in the terpsichorean line. It was discovered on the Barbary coast by a Russian danseuse, who says it is more artistic than the hooche cooche and not too naughty to be produced before the Russian court, which she proposes to do. The "turkey walk" is another recent innovation, discovered by innumerable Republican patriots who expressed the laudable desire to imitate themselves on the altar of public office last fall.

To Hunt in Africa.

Dr. Marius Johnston, of Lexington, who recently accompanied Harry Payne Whitney and Paul J. Rainey on their Arctic expedition, is now planning an African hunting trip with Rainey and the two will sail early in February. The expedition will sail from New York and will be thoroughly equipped for a several months' stay on the Dark Continent.

Much of the time spent on the hunting trip will, it is said, be in East Africa and on some of Roosevelt's old trails.

Free Sample Aids Old Men

The sudden change from years of activity of both body and mind to the quiet of later years causes the human system to undergo many changes, chief of which is in the digestive organs.

It becomes harder and harder to get the bowels to move promptly and regularly and in consequence many elderly men suffer not only from the basic trouble, constipation, but from indigestion, headache, belching, sour stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances. It is first of all necessary to keep the bowels open and then to tone the digestive muscles so as to get them to again do their work naturally. A violent cathartic or purgative is not only unnecessary but harmful, and something mild will do the work just as well.

After you have got through experimenting with salts and pills and waters of various kinds, and have become convinced that they do only temporary good at best, then try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a mild, gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative tonic that is especially adapted to the requirements of old people, women and children, and yet is effective enough for anybody. Your druggist, who has handled it successfully for a quarter of a century, will sell you a bottle for fifty cents or one dollar, but if you want to make a test of it before spending any money send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and he will gladly send you a sample bottle free of charge.

This remedy is rapidly displacing all other forms of medication for the cure of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, and families like Mr. O. F. Wisner's of Syracuse, Ill., and Mrs. Carrie Culler's of 325 N. Notre Dame street, South Bend, Ind., are now never without it in the house. They have tested it and know its grand value to every member of the family. Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.
